The MOUNT '55

MOUNT SAINT JOSEPH ACADEMY

RUTLAND VERMONT

FOREWORD

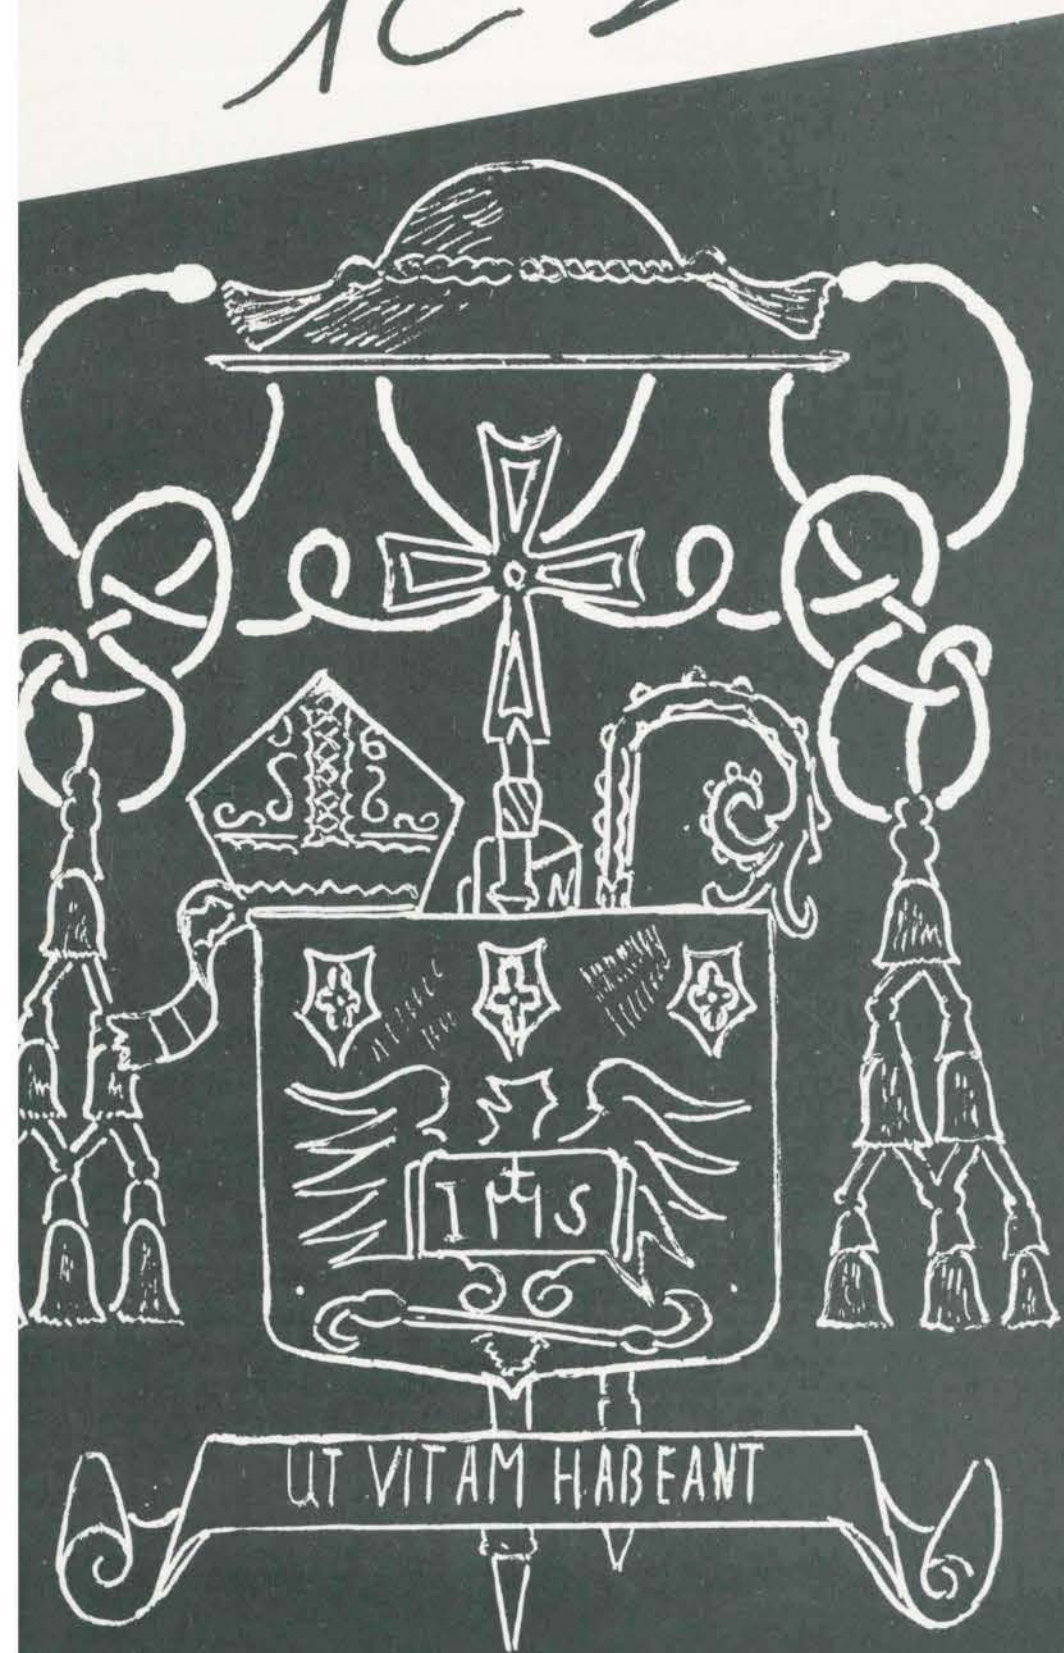

Mount Saint Joseph is devoted to education; among the greatest benefits that have accrued to us in the Academy are the lessons we have learned through student living.

PRESENTATION

With pride we present the 1955
MOUNT, a pictorial account of life here at M.S.J. and the way we live it.

We Dedicate

Coat of Arms of Bishop Joyce

Our '55 Mount to His Excellency Bishop Robert F. Joyce

His Excellency, the Most Reverend Robert Francis Joyce, has chosen a personal coat of arms, designed by Mr. Gerard Patrick Rooney of Boston.

The monogram, IHS, is taken from the arms of the Society of Jesus and refers to Bishop Joyce's baptismal patron, Saint Robert Bellarmine, a member of the Society of Jesus.

The birth date of Bishop Joyce, the seventh of October, the feast day of the Most Holy Rosary, accounts for the three roses above the eagle. These refer to the joyful, sorrowful and glorious mysteries.

The processional cross is designed from the famous cross of Cong and is used in deference to the Bishop's Irish ancestry.

The hat and the other insignia added to the shield are used to indicate the rank of bishop.

His Excellency has chosen as his motto the words of Christ, "Ut Vitam Habeant--That They May Have Life." John, 10, 10.

The Holy Family

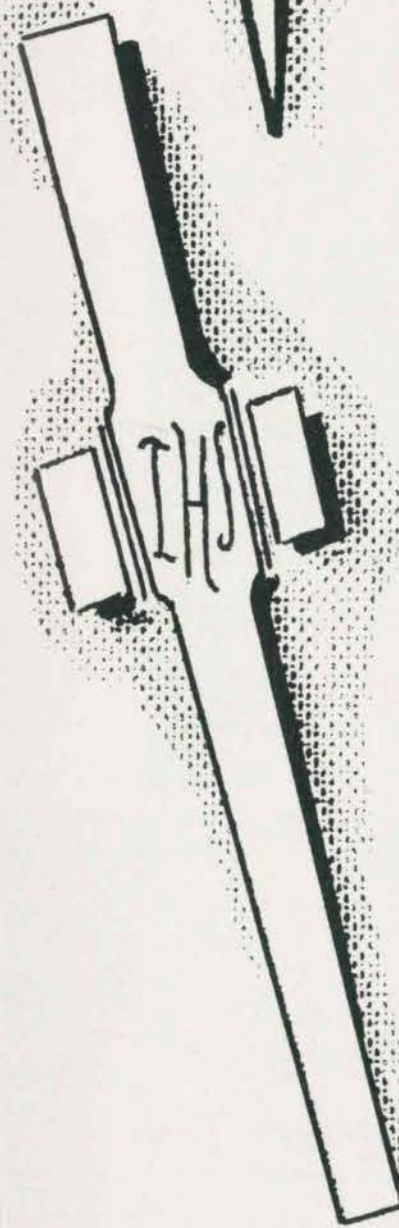

The highest ideal of truly Christian family life has been given to the world in the example of the virtues of the three members of the Holy Family.

CONSECRATION MESSAGE

His Excellency
THE MOST REVEREND EDWARD F. RYAN, D.D.
Bishop of Burlington, Vermont

"I am profoundly grateful to His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, for acceding to my request that Most Reverend Robert F. Joyce be named Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Burlington.

As to the priestly character and outstanding ability of Bishop-elect Joyce, it is needless for me to elaborate upon them. He has been a good parish priest for many years, and has shown excellent administrative ability. He possesses something that is most important, namely, an understanding of the problems of the ordinary working classes and a willingness to help them. He has a friendly manner that makes it easy for all to approach him for assistance and direction.

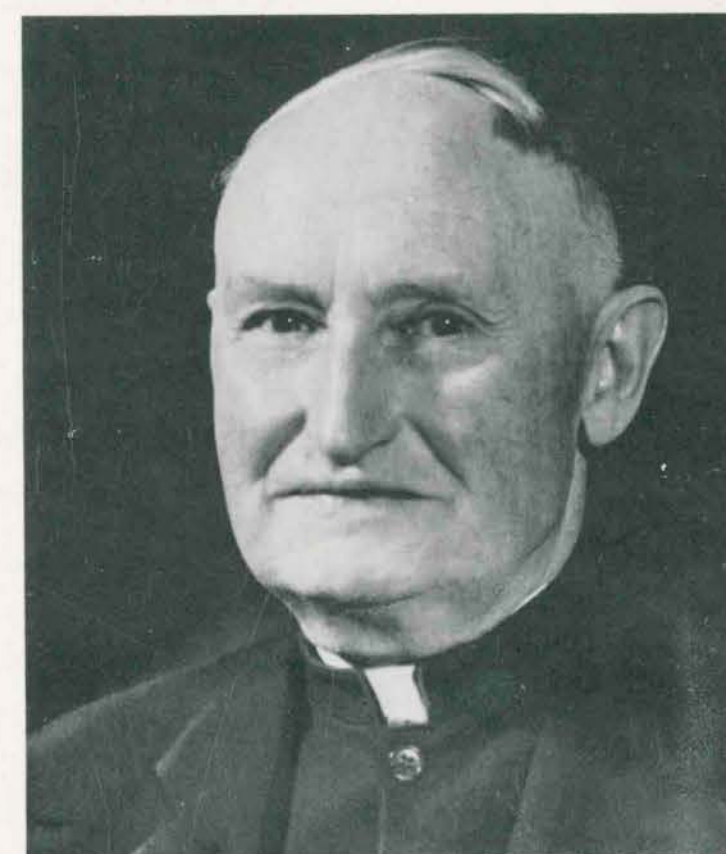

I am sure the prayers of all will be united with my own humble supplications to Almighty God that he may be blessed with every grace needed to carry on the duties of the episcopate for the greater honor and glory of the Most Holy Trinity and the salvation of the souls of men."

MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1955

"THAT YOU MAY HAVE LIFE," is the motto of Most Reverend Bishop Joyce. In the Holy Scripture where these words of Christ are found, they are followed by "And have it more abundantly." This is indeed the prayer of all of us for all of you now leaving the Academy. The Church prays that you may have super-natural life. She maintains schools that you might have it more abundantly. Your parents pray that you may have life, and sacrifice so very much that you may have it more abundantly.

But only you can make the prayers and the wishes come true; only you can make the sacrifices worthwhile. Each one must do it for himself now, as you go your separate ways in the twentieth century world. We who stay will ever pray that you will so conduct yourselves that you may have life everlasting and have it most abundantly.

GOD BLESS YOU,

Father Lynch

Youth prepared to live a

Christian life.

MOTHERS' AND FATHERS' CLUB

The M. S. J. Mothers and Fathers Club has been actively interested in us and in our school for the past five years.

It was the Mothers and Fathers Club that provided leadership and the bulk of the work in raising the funds with which the band uniforms were purchased five years ago. Every year they have sponsored the annual Spring Sports Banquet to honor all school athletes.

It is the same Mothers and Fathers Club that annually defrays the cost of one boy and one girl from the Academy attending Boys' State and Girls' State. For the past two years they have conducted the Booster Club to aid not only the school but the Sisters as well.

To the officers, the executive board, and all the members, our sincere appreciation and thanks.

THE CLARION

Virginia Mondella - Business Manager

Telephone calls to the printer, drawing up the dummy, rushing to meet the deadline--these jobs and many more go towards making up the school paper, "The Clarion". But the effort by the staff proves worthwhile when the day of publication arrives.

Under the guidance of Mr. Walter Moore, the staff published ten issues of the "Clarion". The Editor was Mary Harvey with Fred Carbine, Patricia Bartholomew and Robert Lawrence serving as Senior, Junior and Sophomore Associates, respectively.

A familiar scene at the Academy which creates much student enthusiasm is the filling of Christmas Baskets. Students bring food and toys to be arranged attractively in baskets which are distributed to families in and around the Rutland area.

We at the Academy have acquired the knowledge of the true Christmas Spirit. The joy of giving can never be surpassed by the delight of receiving.

As the deadline for last year's "Mount" came before the completion of the tournament, the staff of the '55 "Mount" feel it their privilege to acknowledge the State Championship of our 1953-54 basketball team and to picture here the trophy. We hoped we could repeat last year's performance, but we are proud of our tournament showing in holding Brattleboro to a 39-36 victory.

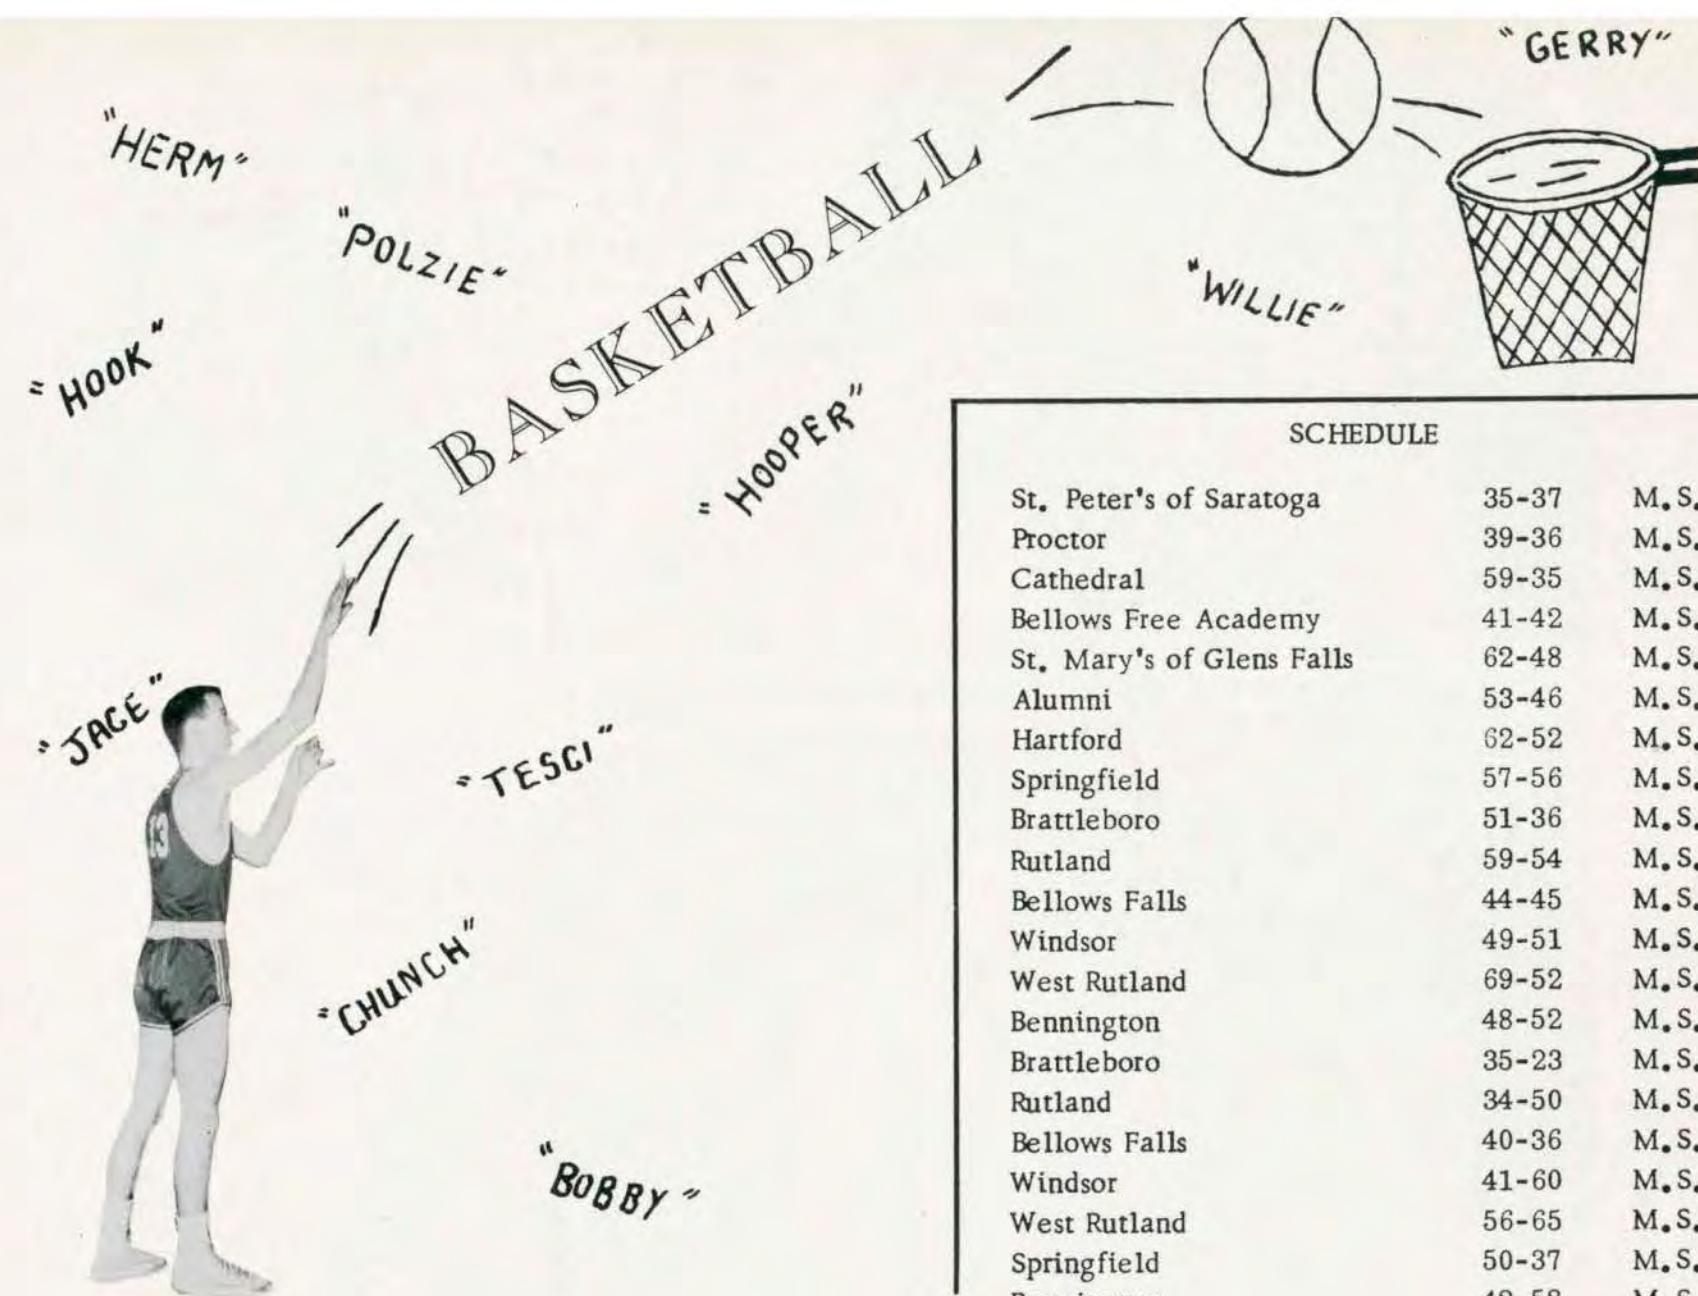

Yea, team!

Dear Friend,

You have just met our friends, the advertisers. Linger carefully over each firm represented. To them we owe a large measure of whatever success this book has attained. In return for their very practical support and encouragement, we have made bold to promise them in your name the patronage they deserve. Please let our promise not be in vain. Patronize our advertisers.

For our part--we pledge an earnest effort to be citizens worthy of the name Christian and American. This we feel is the best--the only way to repay your kindness to us. Thus we may confidently continue "to have life" and together with you "live it more abundantly."

Be assured of our deep and sincere gratitude.

Sincerely yours,

The Class of 1955
